THEME TOPIC: HOPE FOR THE JOURNEY

Our theme speaker, Lisa Elliott, has found out firsthand that life is a journey full of twists and turns, hills and valleys. Lisa's journey has led her on a path she never would have expected.
On August 19, 2009 she experienced every mother's worst nightmare: the death of her 19
year old son, Ben, after an intense year-long battle with leukemia. God has turned her "mess" into a powerful "message" of hope that you won't want to miss. Join us and find "Hope for the Journey", wherever life takes you!

WORKSHOPS

Everyone will attend two workshops – one in the morning & one in the afternoon. Enrolment in the craft is on a first-come, first-served basis, so please indicate a second choice if you register for the craft. The $5 craft registration fee will be refunded February 2nd if necessary.

(1) & (5) - Allowing Our Struggles To Transform Us – Beth Gray - Is conflict a negative experience we should just endure, or can it be seen as an opportunity that God can use to accomplish much good in a life? The apostle Paul wrote his letter to the Philippians while he was in prison and he understood he could either curse the chains that bound him or he could consecrate them. We have the same choice when we are dealing with personal conflict; we can squander a transformative opportunity or we can embrace it and experience the same confidence and peace that Paul knew in his imprisonment. Let's look at some practical, biblical guidance for life-changing reconciliation with family, co-workers and fellow believers.

(2) and (6) – Knowing Self, Knowing God – Shalini Sankarlal - We all want to be the best we can be. We want to be the best wife, mother, grandmother, daughter or friend. We seek to deepen or start a relationship with God. Sometimes we think this requires changing or improving ourselves even before we know our true selves. Yet our true selves are a result of our uniqueness in Christ. By discovering our true selves, we allow ourselves to be open to God's purpose for us. Together let us discover how knowing our true selves can help us know God, become who God desires us to be and therefore be the best we can be.

(3) and (7) – Let's Stop Killing Our House Plants – Lynette Kirton - Join Lynette to learn how to maintain your indoor plants and propagate plants. She will talk about growing herbs and teach us how to maintain a constant supply of them for cooking purposes. There will be a question and answer period at the end of her presentation. Lynette currently works as a Horticultural Specialist at Vandermeer Nursery, located at Lakeridge Road and Bayly Street in Ajax.

(4) and (8) Craft –Nancy Findlay. Create a Beautiful Fruit of the Spirit Bracelet. “But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.” (Gal.5:22-23) Each fruit is represented in the bracelet by a different stone – a constant reminder of how the Holy Spirit is at work in our lives!
